Live the language

To learn French, it helps to fall in love with France. Our Language Immersion Tours make both happen by combining interactive lessons at our EF International Language School in Nice with authentic cultural experiences. Each day has a theme—like art, history, or food—that connects the day's lesson to hands-on activities and conversations in French. Your fluency expands along with your confidence and your passion for language. And through it all, your Language Immersion Program Director is by your side, supporting your language learning and highlighting every breakthrough moment.

LANGUAGE IMMERSION IN NICE

10 days / Paris / Nice

What you'll experience on your Language Immersion Tour

Each day in Nice is built around a daily theme that explores topics you can relate to—like film, food, and youth culture. You'll improve your French skills and confidence as you discover a new appreciation for the local culture.

LANGUAGE LESSONS

You'll learn and practice vocabulary relevant to each day's theme during an accredited lesson at the EF International Language School in Nice. Taught by local language instructors, your classes are a chance to have conversations with fellow students as you prepare for each day's interactive activities.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Learning how to cook like a French chef or creating pottery at a local atelier adds authentic cultural richness to your language development. And your specially trained Language Immersion Program Director will be by your side, helping and encouraging the beginning learners while challenging the more advanced students.

INTERACTIONS WITH LOCALS

Conversing with locals while learning to play pétanque or over a home-cooked meal offers you an opportunity to put your new skills to use while learning more about the culture. With each conversation in French, you will gain more confidence in your speaking and listening abilities.

> For a true taste of Provençal cuisine, don't miss the anchovies

Craving crêpes for lunch? Order them in French

^ Learn how to play pétanque with locals on day 5

DAY 1: FLY OVERNIGHT TO FRANCE

DAY 2: PARIS

Welcome to Paris, the City of Light. You're greeted at the airport by your specially trained Language Immersion Program Director, who will be with you throughout your tour. Your first stop in Paris is the Louvre, home of the Mona Lisa. From there, take a walking tour along the Seine. As you cross over the river, watch the bouquinistes selling old books and postcards, and catch glimpses of the Conciergerie and St. Chapelle from the Pont Neuf. Continue through the Latin Quarter, where the most famous university in Paris, the Sorbonne, was founded in 1253.

DAY 3: PARIS

- On your walking tour of Paris, see a sense of cultural, historical and national pride come to life as you explore the city on foot.
- Enjoy a cruise around the Seine River.
- Catch a glimpse of Notre-Dame Cathedral.
- See more of Paris on your own or add a visit to Versailles, where you'll have a chance to practice your French at the elaborate palace of Louis XIV.

DAY 4: PARIS | NICE

- Travel by TGV, France's high-speed train, to Nice.
- Walk to Nice's historic port and explore the colorful harbor area.

DAY 5: NICE

Today's Theme: French Culture, Past and Present—France has played an enormous role in high culture in Europe since the 17th century. Its influence now stretches worldwide, setting trends in fashion, cinema, and cuisine. Nice was the destination of choice for aristocratic families in the 18th century, and continues to be one of France's most popular cities—as you'll discover during today's activities.

- Practice your conversational French in an interactive language lesson that focuses on French cultural traditions.
- Play a round of pétanque, a traditional French lawn-bowling game. Side by side with locals, channel your inner French and land your boule right beside the cochonnet.
- Interact with locals as you compete in a citywide scavenger hunt.

DAY 6: NICE

Today's Theme: French Culinary Traditions—French cuisine is known for its rich, regional specialties such as crêpes and cheeses. A French meal typically consists of three to four courses: hors d'œuvre, plat principal, fromage, and dessert. During today's activities, you'll see that Provençal cuisine is especially well known for its use of olive oil, anchovies, fruits, and vegetables.

- Practice food-related vocabulary in an interactive language lesson.
- Interact with local vendors during a market challenge and try traditional French foods.
- Try your hand at preparing authentic French food during a cooking class.

DAY 7: NICE

Today's Theme: Daily Life in France—In this bustling European country, rugby is more popular than football and la bise, a kiss on both cheeks, is more common than a handshake. Today's your chance to learn what life in France is like, and to see things from a local's perspective.

- Practice your conversational French in an interactive language lesson that focuses on daily life in France.
- Participate in a cultural exchange activity with locals. Whether it's a trivia night, pickup soccer, a student-guided walking tour, or a community project, you'll hear about life in Nice and what it's like to call France home. The locals will want to learn about life in the U.S., so be ready to answer their questions, too!

DAY 8: NICE

Today's Theme: French Art—You've heard of artists such as Vincent van Gogh, Claude Monet, Paul Cézanne, and Pierre Auguste Renoir. These, and countless other artists, called France home for much of their lives. Today you will discover the amazing light, rolling scenery, and unmatched culture that continue to attract artists from around the world.

- Master art-related terms while practicing your conversational French in an interactive language lesson.
- Explore Nice's art scene during an interactive art workshop with a local artist.
- Enjoy a homemade dinner with locals, the perfect opportunity to gain unique insight into life in France today.

DAY 9: NICE

Today's Theme: French Popular Culture—France, the birthplace of cinema, has the highest density of cinemas in the world. Home to the world-renowned Cannes Film Festival, the country is still considered a global film capital. France has also been a leader in artistic, literary, and musical movements for centuries, making it arguably one of the most fascinating places to examine pop culture—which you will do today.

- Learn about France's popular culture and film traditions during a language lesson.
- Travel to Monaco, which is actually its own sovereign city-state. See the world-famous Monte-Carlo Casino and Prince's Palace, as well as the seaside Fontvieille district.
- Make your way to Cannes, previously a small fishing village that's now considered a glamorous coastal destination for celebrities due to its annual film festival.
- Stop in the medieval village of Eze, where you can soak up astonishing views of the Mediterranean Sea and French Riviera.

DAY 10: DEPART FOR HOME

Your tour may be coming to an end, but your lifelong love of the French language is only beginning.
